BOB ANDERSON

Bob

You are so queer. I don't want you to ever forget a few things like Tex Rielly and J.K. (Vitalis) I hate the world Goddamn you Fuckit Go to Hell God. I want a bitch to ball with me in the back seat of the bread mobile. On the other hand, I love the blue skys, the trees the birds—life in general. peace be with you my good friend and may our paths cross again—(in bed!)

Breaking Through Tradition To 'Try The New'

Change initiated the year with a new administration and fresh ideas: Instead of two separate pep assemblies in the auditorium, all students went to the boys' gym at the same time. This unification of the student body doubled the cheering volume and helped psyche up the players. After many years of trying, the Student Government succeeded in obtaining permission for outdoor lunches in the open courtyard off the cafeteria. Music from various radio stations added to the liveliness of indoor lunches. For the first time foreign language students went to Spain and France during the Easter vacation.

The annual student-written, student-acted play, Deviltries, opened its tryouts to teachers. Mrs. Carol Hall, debate instructor, captured a leading role. For the first time since 1965 the Student Government brought back the Varsity Drag, an old-fashioned dance complete with jukebox and soda fountain. Those students attending contributed to the mood of nostalgia by dressing in the apparel of the 1950's and doing the jitterbug.

Assemblies Highlight Black History Week

On Tuesday and Wednesday of Black History Week the P.A. system carried the biographies of three famous Afro-Americans and the singing of the Black National Anthem. Assemblies featuring song, dance, acting and poetry revolved around the central theme "What Afro-Americanism Is."

Attractions of Thursday's assembly included a play portraying a storefront church service and singing by the Gospel Choir. Friday continued the theme with modern dancing, reading of black poetry, and a fashion show with DHS students as models. Climaxing the final moments of the week, Mary Gibson was announced as Afro-American Queen, Lisa Russell and Cheryl Minor runners-up.

South America Sends Exchange Student

Maria Nan Clares, a foreign exchange student from Columbia, South America, participated in the "Youth for Understanding" program. She stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Abel, Jr. for one year. Maria involved herself in many activities. Some of her favorite pastimes included joining the Spanish 2 and 3 classes for dinner at Loma Linda's, attending youth group activities at Pilgrim Church, seeing Tiger basketball games and Junior Sorelles. Her interests included volleyball, painting, reading and collecting dolls and postcards from foreign countries. Having many relatives, Maria received mail almost every day of the week.

Spirit Sparks The Year Of The Tiger

Outstanding record in sports brought spirit to a high peak. Ticket sales for all events were extremely high compared to past years. Homecoming was a huge success selling a record 112 bids. Signs clustered on walls and enthusiastic cheering before all games projected students' support for their team. Garbage cans in the halls showed school colors in polka dots, stripes, and checkerboards. Carnation and mailbox sales also surpassed all previous years. In honor of red division basketball champs, cheerleaders decorated the varsity locker room and the halls. DEVILBISS was spelled out in large white letters painted on the orange bleachers of the stadium. Christmas dance sold 37 bids and the car caravan to Sandusky was once more well attended. Many students signed up for commissions, committees for dances, and committees for school productions. Anyone looking at the Tiger side at a game could see assorted costumes, hats, and signs that all showed the fact we felt we were #1 no matter what happened!

No Draft, Women's Lib Change Career Outlook

Affairs of the outside world affected the lives of students profoundly and in many ways. Relief came to many draft-fearing seniors, with the ending of the Vietnam war. They can now plan definitely for the future: jobs, school, marriage.

Girls can now look forward to being and doing whatever they want: medicine, armed service, engineering, politics, lawyers, etc.

Career Ends For Outstanding Alumnus

Memories of David Parker, 1972 graduate of DeVilbiss, will remain with those who knew him. A tragic drowning took his life, and that of his friend Jim Gregory, on March 15.

Being of unique character Dave's interests in DeVilbiss continued after graduation. Early in September of this year he spent a day with Mr. C. Ellis explaining Student Government. Returning to DeVilbiss to lend help to the baseball team in the spring showed his enthusiasm for DHS.

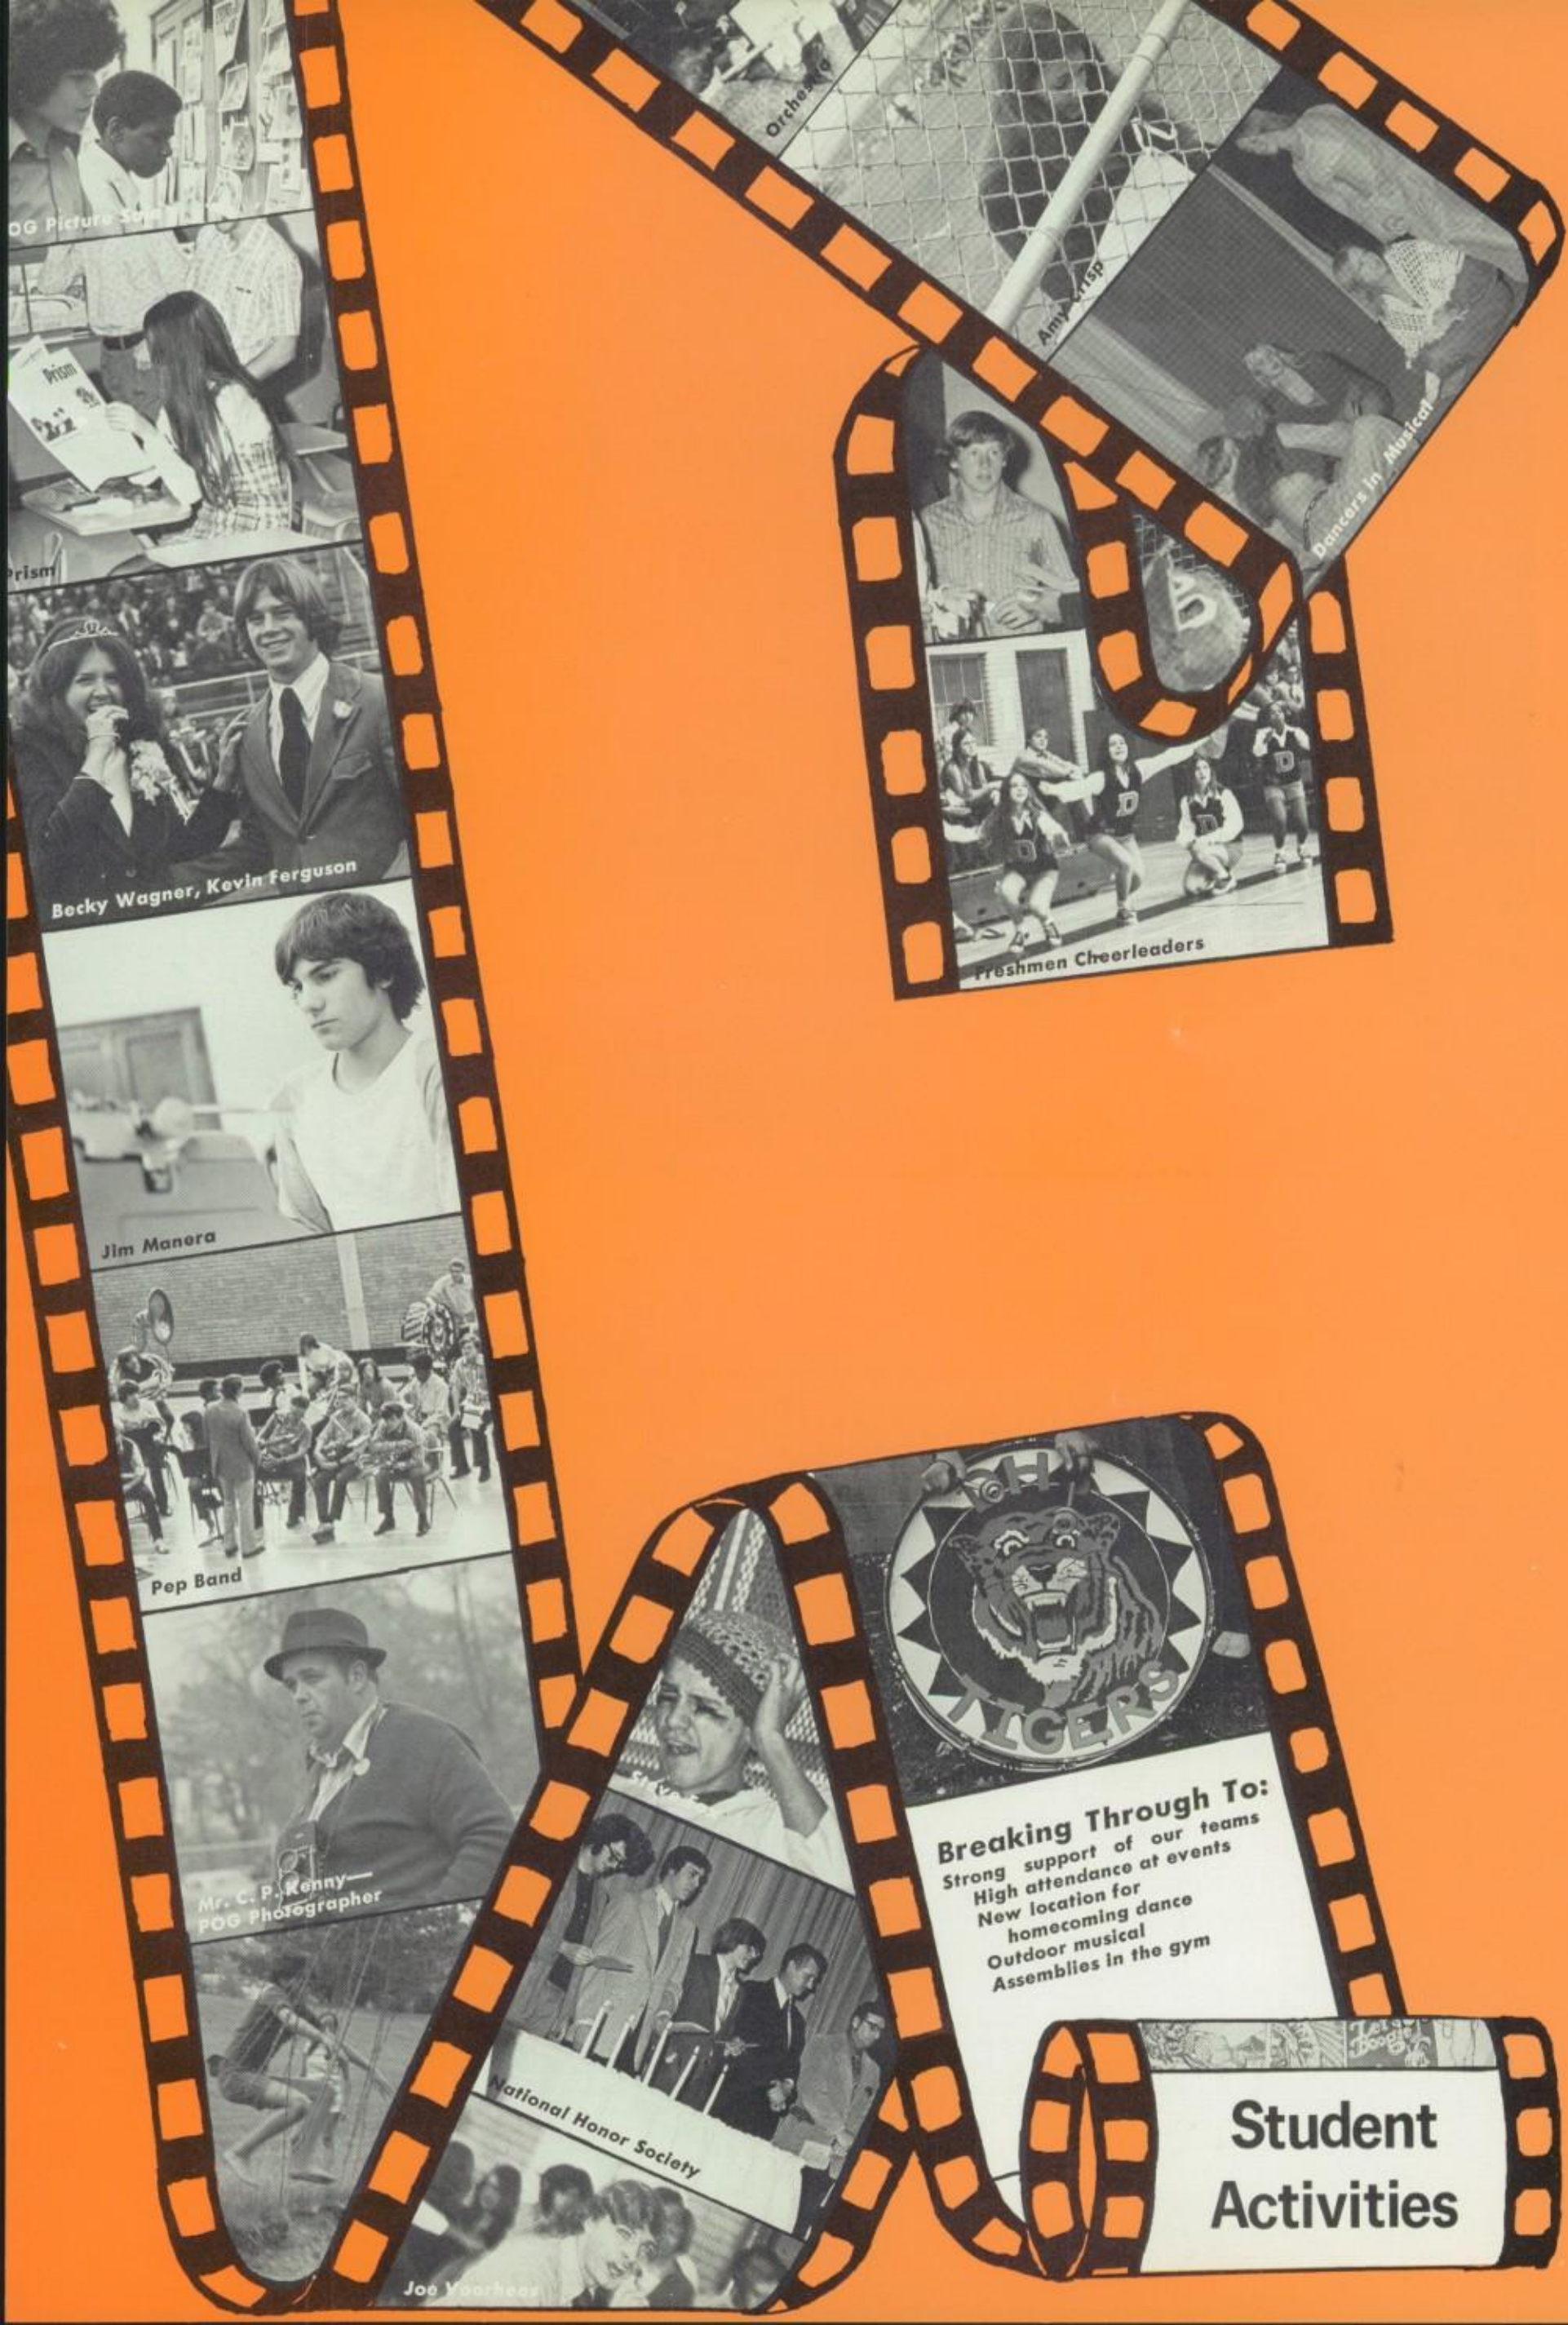

Dave was very active at DeVilbiss. During his four years he served as class president his junior year, and as student government president his senior year. Dave was also on the baseball team three years (captain senior year) and on the basketball team two years.

Young Life played an important part in Dave's life. While in high school he was a regular at meetings and retreats and after graduation he became a YL leader.

Dave's positive attitudes, his winning personality, his dedication and enthusiasm will all be greatly missed. We regret the loss of someone who had so much to give us and the world.

After 7 Years Tigers Win Victory

Breaking tradition, the crowning of the queen did not take place at the pep assembly on Friday. Not until halftime in Saturday's game did last year's queen, Bonnie Nappenbach, place the crown upon the head of Becky Wagner. This, too, was new.

Cars donated by the Corvette Club carried the court on a parade of the field preceding the game.

Continuing the break in tradition, not the DeVilbiss cafeteria, but the Franklin Park Mall's Community Room was the scene for the formal dance that evening. Decorations carried out the theme, "The Year of the Tiger". One hundred ten couples thoroughly enjoyed the music of the "Corrupters".

Left: BOE students Pat McKenzie, Becky Harris, Kathy Rogers, and Linda Steinam put finishing touches on their float. This is only the second year they have entered. This float won first.

New Adviser Helps Officers Plan Year

"Mr. C. Ellis is very enthusiastic about everything. He really likes his job." This was the way vice-president, Tom Weissbrod, of Student Government described the new coordinator of student activities.

Student Government offered prizes for best decorated room and float for homecoming, and even for the city championship game. The annual candy and magazine drives helped pay for homecoming expenses.

The students suggested many new ideas. Some of them included: different disciplinary measures, homecoming dance at Franklin Park Mall, establishing a more effective student-faculty-administration board, and helping the seniors revive Varsity Drag.

Commissioners

Joe Voorhees Moves Assemblies To Gym

Assembling in the boys' gym, rather than in two groups in the auditorium, brought all students together to psyche up the team and fire up the students. Because of this, students enjoyed a good athletic year in all fields. Planning homecoming halftime activities became a new responsibility for the ten members of the assemblies commission.

Newly appointed cultural assemblies commissioners, Lisa Russel and Mark Humphreys, planned Black History Week including the nomination of an Afro-king and queen.

Interested boys signed up for intramural basketball organized by Derrick Diggs. The process of elimination chose one team out of ten to be the Intramural basketball champs.

Committees

Lack of Funds Halts Committee

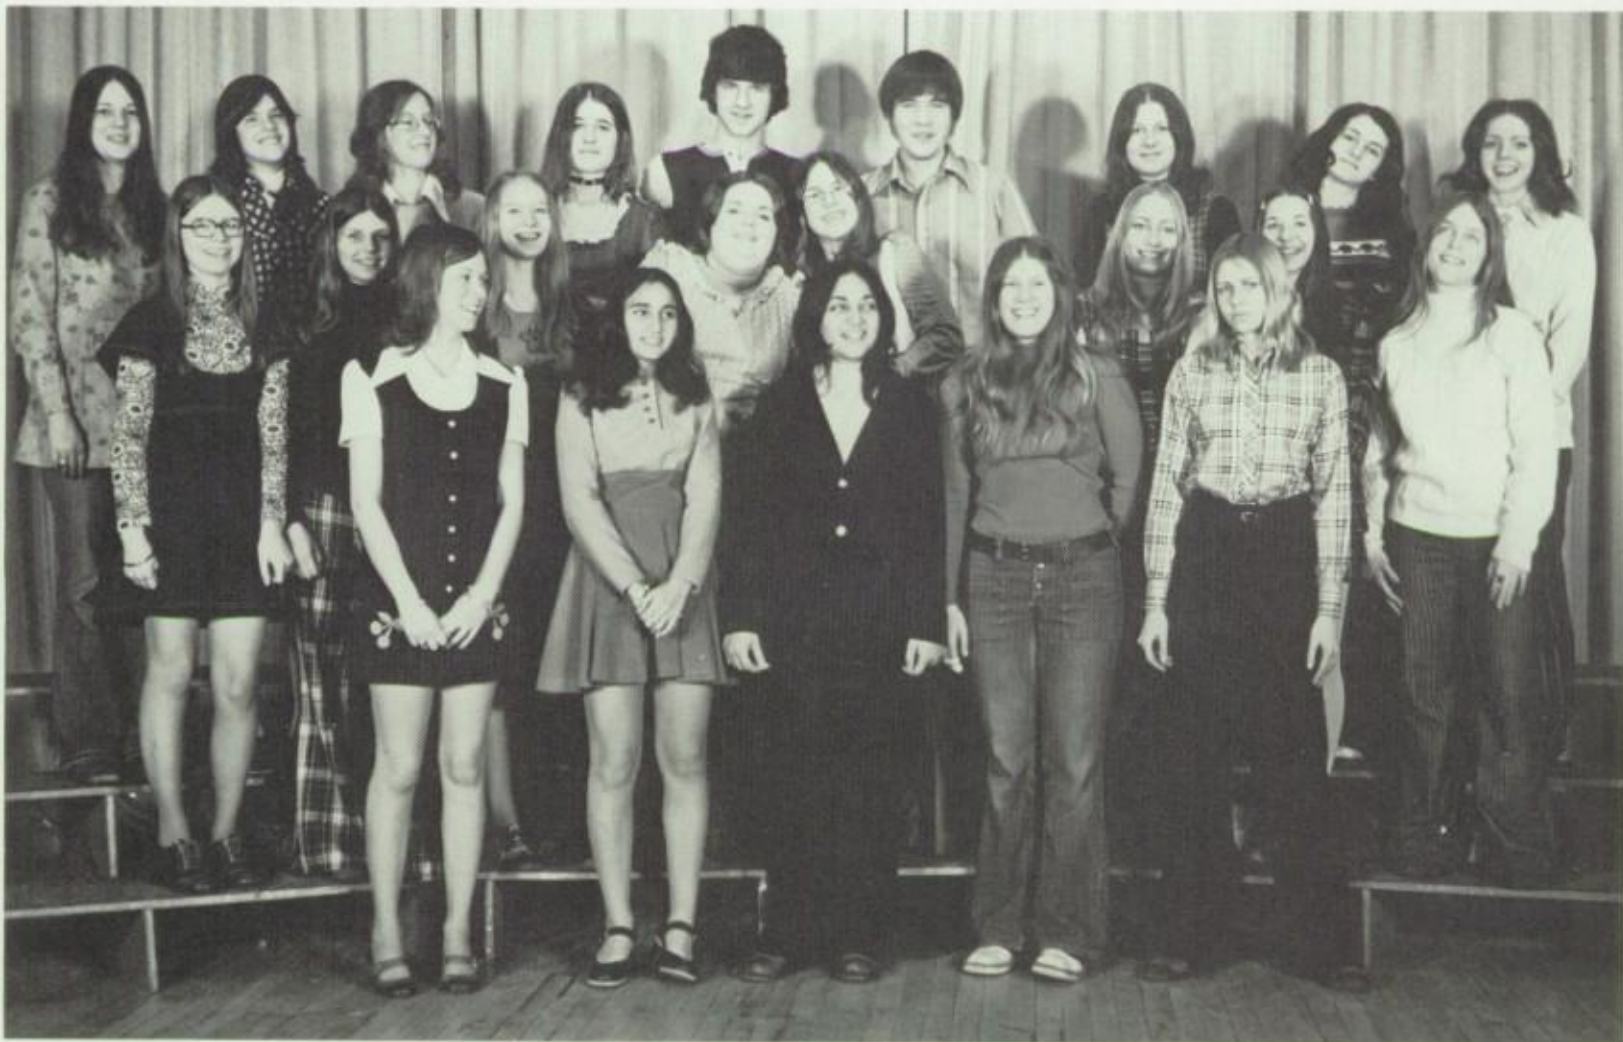

Byron Richard proposed to Student Council the formation of a new curriculum committee to investigate possibilities of having students suggest new elective courses for next year's curriculum. The 4-member committee is at a standstill because of lack of funds from the Board of Education to support new courses.

The Judiciary Board studied reasons for the increase in price of the Pot O' Gold. It also suggested a new procedure for calling students down to their counselor's office.

The Student-Faculty-Administration Board proposed to hold a 3-day free school in April. Students who wanted to learn about a specific subject matter, such as fishing, back-packing, bike-hiking, mini-cooking courses, automobile repairing and coin collecting could do so during that time—no grades to be recorded. Teachers and students talented and qualified in fields could be eligible to teach.

Cheerleaders Receive Highest Honor at Camp

For three consecutive years the Varsity cheerleaders have received the highest possible awards at the National Cheerleading Association, which they attended in Syracuse, Indiana. Three of the four seniors have been cheerleaders all four years. The Junior Varsity received a second place rating at the clinic at T.U.

Varsity cheerleaders purchased new basketball uniforms and the Junior Varsity bought new football sweaters. Because of an increased number, the freshmen made their uniforms.

To help boost the spirit of the football players, the cheerleaders made goody bags and decorated the locker room before each game. They also decorated Craig Davis' house the morning before the City Cross Country Meet. Bouncier, peppier cheers, introduced by the cheerleaders, brought a much better response from students.

Performers Entertain Spectators

Cheering at wrestling matches in addition to football and baseball games as well as assemblies gave the Tigerettes a busy year. Only 5 girls were interested in being Tigerettes so all of them automatically made it. Diane Gedert was the only new member. They made new Tiger uniforms to wear at assemblies. In the spring, all the girls went out to dinner at the "Top of the Tower."

Pom Pom girls danced at the home basketball games during halftime. The girls chose their own music and choreographed their own dances. Miss Carol Husum was their advisor.

To be chosen for the group, girls had to meet these qualifications: ability to dance, appearance, willingness to work and practice. She said of the girls, "This year the Pom Pom girls are a more devoted dance group."

Captain, Debbie Orlando, watches as the wrestling team is announced.

Performing for all the fans during halftime at the Cardinal Stritch basketball game are Etta Tate, Angie Hamilton, Glenda Cooper, Yo-

Fantasticks

Musical in Court Draws Full House

On 4 beautiful May evenings in the court for the first in history an all-school cast presented "Fantasticks." Preparation for this out-of-doors musical began with the building of the outdoor stage and ended with the work of the lighting crew.

Ruth Landis was the student assistant director; Mr. T. Bollin, the director; and Mr. R. Baggs, the musical coordinator.

The reaction by the student body was most enthusiastic. Missy Knight, "I liked the theater in the court. The only problem was the bugs." Neil Rubin, "It was the best production put on by DeVilbiss since I've been here." Marilyn Montrie, "It was different. DeVilbiss should do more modern plays."

Jill Judy tries to decide where to hang the posters advertising "Fantasticks."

Musical

"Man of La Mancha" Entertains Patrons

Various innovations marked this year's theatrical production. Altering the style of scene changes the actors carried sets on and off stage themselves while blackout lighting replaced curtains. Another first in DeVilbiss history was the matinee performance for area junior high school students from McKinley, Nathan Hale, and Old Orchard.

Mr. Robert Baggs and Mrs. Martha Pownall co-directed the play. Mr. Baggs gave individual voice lessons to the lead singers in addition to conducting the 14-member orchestra including DeVilbiss talent and four musicians from other area schools. Mrs. Pownall directed the play with the help of Sue Hazard, student director. Mr. Bollin supervised the coordination of stagecraft and choreography aided by student, Candie Jones.

Prism Gets Face Lift

New adviser, new room, new equipment, including an IBM typewriter and a completely different method of preparation brought a whole new look to the Prism. With only 2 returning staff members, the rest of the staff were new and inexperienced. The West Toledo Herald became the new printer.

In preparing the paper for the printer, staff members typed the articles column-fashion, sprayed them with a "type-setter" and pasted them onto the layout sheet with hot melted wax.

Because of the many difficulties encountered at the beginning of the year, the first issue did not come out until November 2, the second issue, November 22, and the third issue, December 12. The lack of funds made a fourth issue questionable.

Bill Hrabak, editor, marks a deadline on Prism calendar.

Typing an article on the new IBM typewriter is reporter, Debbie Black.

Staff Adds Fun Times To Hard Work

For all staff members the training period began last spring with classes on yearbooks at the University of Detroit. They also attended sessions in the summer, one of which was a hotdog roast at Crosby Park. Nineteen of the thirty staff members flew to New York for Columbia University's Short Course on yearbooks. For the second consecutive year, the Pot O' Gold received the Medalist Award, the highest award in the nation. They had already received an A+ award from the National School Yearbook Association. In the five days spent in New York they saw Central Park, the United Nations, Lincoln Center, the Empire State Building and several plays.

Fun times included an end of the year swim party at Stoney Ridge Holiday Inn, holiday parties in the room, and a tour of the Gray Printing Company in Fostoria. Pot O' Gold staff enjoyed a day at Bob Bules' cottage in Michigan.

Orchestra

Membership and Interest Drop

Hampered by a 7:30 A.M. practice time, the membership of the orchestra has dwindled. However, the group was able to provide three concerts, one in mid-winter and two in spring.

To supplement funds given by the Board of Education, orchestra and band members cooperated on a tag day in the fall. Since the money collected totaled a modest amount, they plan to hold a second tag day in the spring.

Five orchestra members belong also to the Toledo Youth Orchestra. They are: Mary Ellen Ethington, violin; Doug Jennings, clarinet; Alan Penamon, violin; Melanie Pertcheck, violin; and Cindy Smith, cello.

Mr. K. Holland, conductor of the youth orchestra and coordinator of the Toledo Ensemble Program, headed the woodwind and string ensembles.

Choir

Honors Fill Year

Of the 65 attending Northwest Regional Contest, held at Bowling Green University, 53 soloists earned the highest rating of I, and 12 earned a II. All four ensembles rated first place.

Chorale travelled throughout Ohio performing in different cities, and at Christmas time presented a half-hour special on television. The 100-member choir sang at Anthony Wayne High School in an exchange concert, at various shopping malls, department stores, women's groups, churches, schools, and Toledo Hospital at Christmas time.

Band

Contest Hosts 33

To receive their rating in the state, six soloists and 27 ensemble members participated in a contest at Bowling Green State University in late February. They appeared before an adjudicator and a small, informal audience.

Concert band performed for two formal concerts, one held in March in conjunction with the orchestra.

Marching band played at half time for all at-home football games, and traveled to Warren Harding for one out-of-town game. They marched in the Christmas and Memorial Day parades, and also played at Cedar Point Park for a day of free rides.

The fifteen member pep band played for all pep assemblies and home basketball games.

'Patrick Anonymous' Pitches Traditions

Cheryl Minor sings "Goodmorning Heartache" as Debbie Lindell awaits her turn to sing. Rick Crokery (masked) portrays a "plastic being" who won't have any ties with the world.

No Usherettes! Seven faculty in the cast! Students composing their own music! A musical rather than a variety show! This was DeViltries '73.

Co-authors of the play were David Britsch and Sue Hazard. Student director was Ruth Landis and Marianne Scheer, general chairman. Choreographer, Kathy Ness, and dance instructors, Kim Beatty and Peggy Morford fitted dances into the play itself to account for the absence of Usherettes.

Patrick, a young high school boy, decides that he must find his true identity. He tries to relate to many different social groups including his classmates, greasers, hoods, religious freaks, the "over 30" generation, and even a girlfriend. After his various adventures, he decides that the only way he can be happy is to just be himself.

Speakers' Series Prepares Members For College

In December, National Honor Society inducted nineteen members. The seniors qualified for membership with a 3.24 average. After inductions, the members and their parents enjoyed delicious cookies and punch in the library. After the tea, old and new members traditionally celebrated the inductions by going out for lunch.

Mr. M. Eastop, a former student of DeVilbiss, and a member of the admissions office at T.U., spoke to the members about what to do when you pick your college. He explained about going to visit colleges before applying. Dr. R. W. Croskery also spoke about colleges in general. He spiked his speech with jokes about experiences he and his son had when they visited colleges.

Quill and Scroll is the international honor society for high school journalists. It held the induction for eleven new members during DeVilbiss Week.

Slides Illustrate Outstanding Work

Mrs. J. Weiss photographed color slides of above average work and kept them on file for later use in her classes.

Before the holiday season, students from all art classes including general art, sculpture, painting, and crafts and ceramics, prepared for the third annual Christmas show and sale. Promising artists sold about $230 during the week of the sale.

Sculpture students worked on cardboard relief to help decorate the new teachers' lounge. The project took three weeks to complete.

New equipment including a slide projector with 800 slides and a second potter's wheel increased the enrollment in art department to three hundred creative, interested students.

I.O.E. Designs Christmas Cards

Christmas cards, printed up by students themselves were distributed to teachers throughout the school. I.O.E. (Intensive Office Education), a three-hour block of 20 students, consists of Typing, Short-hand, and Business Principles.

Mr. R. Brock, director of D.E.C.A. organized a Jingle Bell program. Early in December six interested business students took a special course in job interviews at Start High School. They were preparing to apply for Christmas jobs as well as career jobs.

Attending school in the morning and working in the afternoon, was the part of C.O.E. (Cooperative Office Education) that seniors enjoyed most. The two-hour block program consists of Business English and Business Machines, and gives students job opportunities at corporations such as Questor, Toledo Bar Association, and various law firms.

Drama and Speech

Grade School Kids Relish Drama Play

Capturing the imagination of many children with a curious machine and a notorious villian was the play, "The Invention", put on by drama students. They produced this show at McKinley, Nathan Hale and Old Orchard schools for children in kindergarten thru third grade. The children got an extra treat when some of them participated in the play by coming on stage and booing the villian. Letters of thanks poured in from the schools to Mrs. M. Pownall and the cast.

Drama students strove to break away from traditional approaches to experimental ones. "Silent Snow, Secret Snow", done chamber theater style, and "The Sand Box", where the audience sat on stage with the performers, helped to achieve this goal. "The Apple Tree" entertained invited classes in the drama room. Drama II did "The Lesson" and "Conversation at Night With a Despised Character."

Besides learning and giving speeches in speech class, two student teachers in Mr. T. Bollin's room held student interest by having a session in transcendental meditation, with which the students experimented. The session ended in laughter.

Shakespeare Class Journeys to Canada

Shakespeare teacher, Mr. T. Bollin took twelve of his students plus stagecraft personnel and chaperones, Mrs. T. Bollin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Britsch, and Mr. H. Feltner, to Stratford, Canada on October 20. The group remained until October 21 and saw two plays, "As You Like It" and "King Lear." This was the first time the trip had ever been made.

English III A.M. students also had their share of excitement by visiting famous Greenfield Village in Dearborn, Michigan on December 19. The four classes of Mr. H. Feltner, Mrs. R. Gladieux, Mr. D. McClellan and M. S. Stein, spent the entire day touring historical buildings, and arts and crafts representing different periods in American history.

Language Festival Sparks Interest

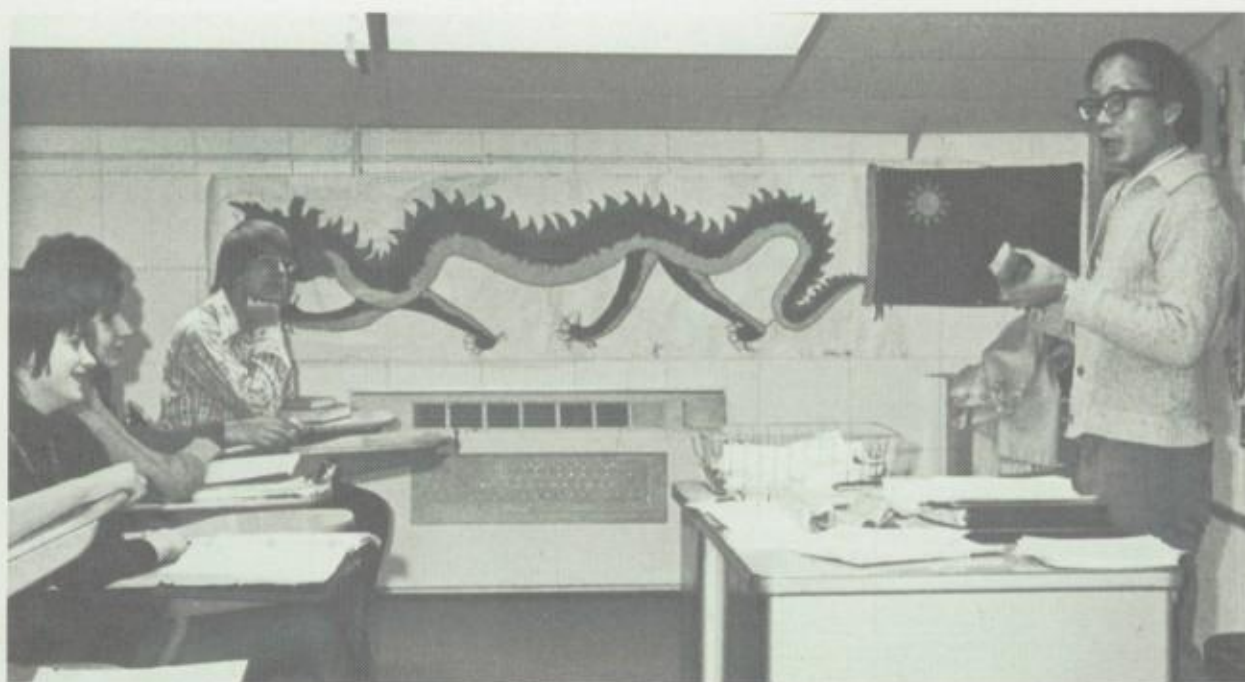

November 20, 21, and 22 set the date for the Foreign Language Festival. Everything from French jigsaw puzzles to a Polka band appeared throughout the language rooms. In preparation for the festival Mrs. J. Newby's students created a model of the Eiffel tower, while Mrs. L. Berger's students set up exhibits of French items in the library and display cases. Mrs. M. Johnson's Latin students recreated the ceiling of the Sistine chapel in their own room.

Spanish students and Mrs. J. Newby's French students sold food during the 3-day Festival to help pay for trips to France and Spain during Spring vacation. Mrs. L. Walter's German students, dressed in pinafores and ledenhosen, enjoyed a Polka band and beer stube. They also sold German food to finance a ski trip to Boyne Mountain.

Delicious Austrian dinners at the International Institute were gobbled by hungry German students, while Mr. J. Mercer's Spanish students traveled from restaurant to restaurant to taste Hungarian, Mexican, and Spanish food.

Gym

Badminton Becomes New Sport in Gym

The introduction of badminton broadened the physical education program. Freshmen and sophomore girls learned bowling for the first time and formed a team.

Underclass boys participated in such skills as, basketball, handball, table tennis, tumbling, volleyball, wrestling and workouts on the trampoline. The boys enjoyed football, soccer, softball and track outside when warm weather prevailed.

The girls were active learning, soccer, softball, track, tumbling and volleyball. Freshmen girls tap danced in the mirror room, while sophomore girls choreographed their own modern dance routines. Sophomores also took part in archery, balance beam, golf, gymnastics, speedball, table tennis and trampoline.

Health classes studied personal health care and emergency first aid. Students viewed movies and wrote informative reports on alcohol and drugs during the course of the year.

Students Move Into Retailing Business

Who's working with wood, plastic and metal? The manufacturing class, that's who! These students sawed, hammered and nailed to make such products as toboggans; tic-tac-toe games; 12 ft. boats; coffee, ping pong and end tables; early American and sculpture chairs; cassette holders; bar stools and desks. After much toil, the different products reached completion and students began advertising them for sale, the profits being divided among themselves.

Students devoted their time to help prevent school vandalism by installing burglar alarm systems in the main office and band room. Other new equipment included test instruments, a television demonstrator and built-in facilities in the lab balcony.

While learning how to install, maintain and operate commercial black and white t.v. cameras, this special class of boys also made trips to Torrence Sound, Channel 11 and Channel 30. Radio class had field trips of their own by going to Owen Tech. College, T.V. Tech. College, Toledo Scale and R&S Electronics. These students had many "shocking" experiences when applying theory to repairing circuits. They also serviced 200 to 300 television sets, radios, tape players and phonographs.

Home Economics

Students Put Work Into Home Projects

Painting rooms and re-finishing furniture are examples of home projects, which every student must do. Each student put 25 hours of work into a home project both semesters and if the project couldn't be brought to school, the teacher visited the home of the student to examine and grade the project.

Valentines Day inspired students to utilize their cooking abilities to bake heart-shaped cookies for Black History Week. Girls seemed to possess, "spring fever", in April when they spent hours baking food to be served and making clothes to be modeled at the annual P.T.A. card party. They also modeled outfits made from Simplicity patterns in a style show that took place in the dramatics room.

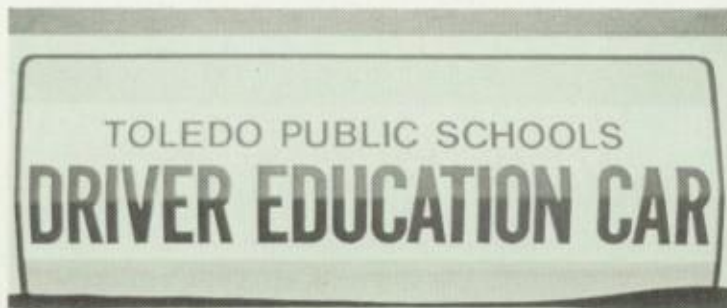

Third year Home Ec students cooked Spanish food and other foreign dishes and decorated cakes. Home Ec IV students learned how to plan a wedding and prepare for marriage and family living, which included child care and home management.

Drivers Education

Policemen Inform Driving Students

Representatives from the Toledo Police visited students planning on, or taking Drivers Ed. each semester. They gave talks informing the audiences of the different traffic laws and how the traffic system operates.

Drivers Ed. offered a special class for interested students, 15 years of age. They completed the required 36 hours of classroom work, and after turning 16, took the 24 hours of driving instruction.

Those who took this course in summer school got a chance to use simulators, devices that help students learning how to drive get the feel of what it's like and to test their reactions.

Library

School Recognizes Devoted Librarian

New display areas in the library honor the late Dolores Wannemacher, who served as librarian from 1957-1972. Her keen delight was to help students with their reference work. The display areas are used to show creative work of students in many fields. Contributions from students and the Building Committee made the display areas possible.

Mathematics

Frosh Break Custom With New Electives

Breaking away from the tradition of only choosing Algebra 1 or Algebra Foundations, frosh had the added option of taking Consumer or Business Math this year.

Mrs. I. Hart's geometry students discovered creating projects illustrating geometric shapes to be fascinating. Senior Math students busied themselves by calculating polar equations and exploring trigonometry.

Participation in the annual math contest was near 150 TADS. The Greater Toledo Council of Teachers of Mathematics sponsored the contest which took place in March at the University of Toledo.

Department adds Two New Balances

Weighing chemicals out to the fourth decimal was made easy for all classes when the science department purchased new balances. This equipment ordered early in the fall, cost about $500. Other new arrivals were paper back handbooks for A.P. Chemistry, which lightened the book load.

Worm and frog dissections found screaming girls and interested boys in Mr. J. Tischinae's biology program. The class also studied blood typing and use of the microscope. Physiology classes highlighted the year by dissecting fetal pigs and assembling cardboard skeletons.

All science students heard a representative from the Science Energy Commission, who described an energy plant that was being built. He used students to spark the demonstrations.

History

Youth Experience Political Scene

Larry Lunceford, Steve Fox, Joan Bennett acted as city officials on Youth Government Day, May 8. Rotary Club sponsored the day when area high school students held a mock legislative session. Beginning in March they went to the Central Y.M.C.A. for training periods to learn how local government operated.

American History classes worked in the field of politics by holding a mock election and debate for the Presidential election.

Afro-American Studies planned a trip to view the, "Sounder", chartering a bus for transportation. Anyone interested could attend. History classes went to see the film, "1776", which helped students in their studies of the Declaration of Independence.

Sea rations given to Russian History students by their ex-Marine student teacher from Bowling Green, broke the classroom routine.

Tigers Utilize Triple Option Finishing 5-3-1

After four years of heavy losses, the 1972 Varsity Football team under the coaching of Dale Pittman, rang up a 5-3-1 record.

Players and coaches agreed that the toughest game of the season was the D.H.S.-Central game played at Start High School. With just seconds left in the 4th quarter, after a long drive, the Tigers held the Irish inside the D.H.S. 10 yard line. The Tiger defense held the Irish to less than 8 yards in 7 attempts at a touchdown. The game ended in a tie, 14-14.

Team members selected Charlie Miller the most valuable offensive player. On defense the M.V.P. award went to Jeff Syzmania. The overall most improved player proved to be Dave Simerll. Eleven Players received All-City honors. The 1973 team will be playing without 16 of this year's seniors.

Tigers Capture Red Division Crown

January marked the beginning of teamwork and a 10 game winning streak that showed 5 players averaging in double figures.

Team members found the 1-3-1 zone and full court press more effective than the man-to-man defense used in previous years. Also, the shuffle offense adopted from Findlay H.S., took the place of set plays called in by the coach.

Use of the fast break frequently left Tigers behind in early parts of games, but their aggressiveness paid off. Tigers won many games in the last seconds including the DHS/St. Francis game that gave De-Vilbiss the Red Division Championship. George Young's winning shot dropped through the basket as the final buzzer sounded.

In the City Championship game, Tigers couldn't provide a re-run of the earlier DHS/St. Francis game and as the last 3 seconds ticked off the clock, John Morton's shot fell short.

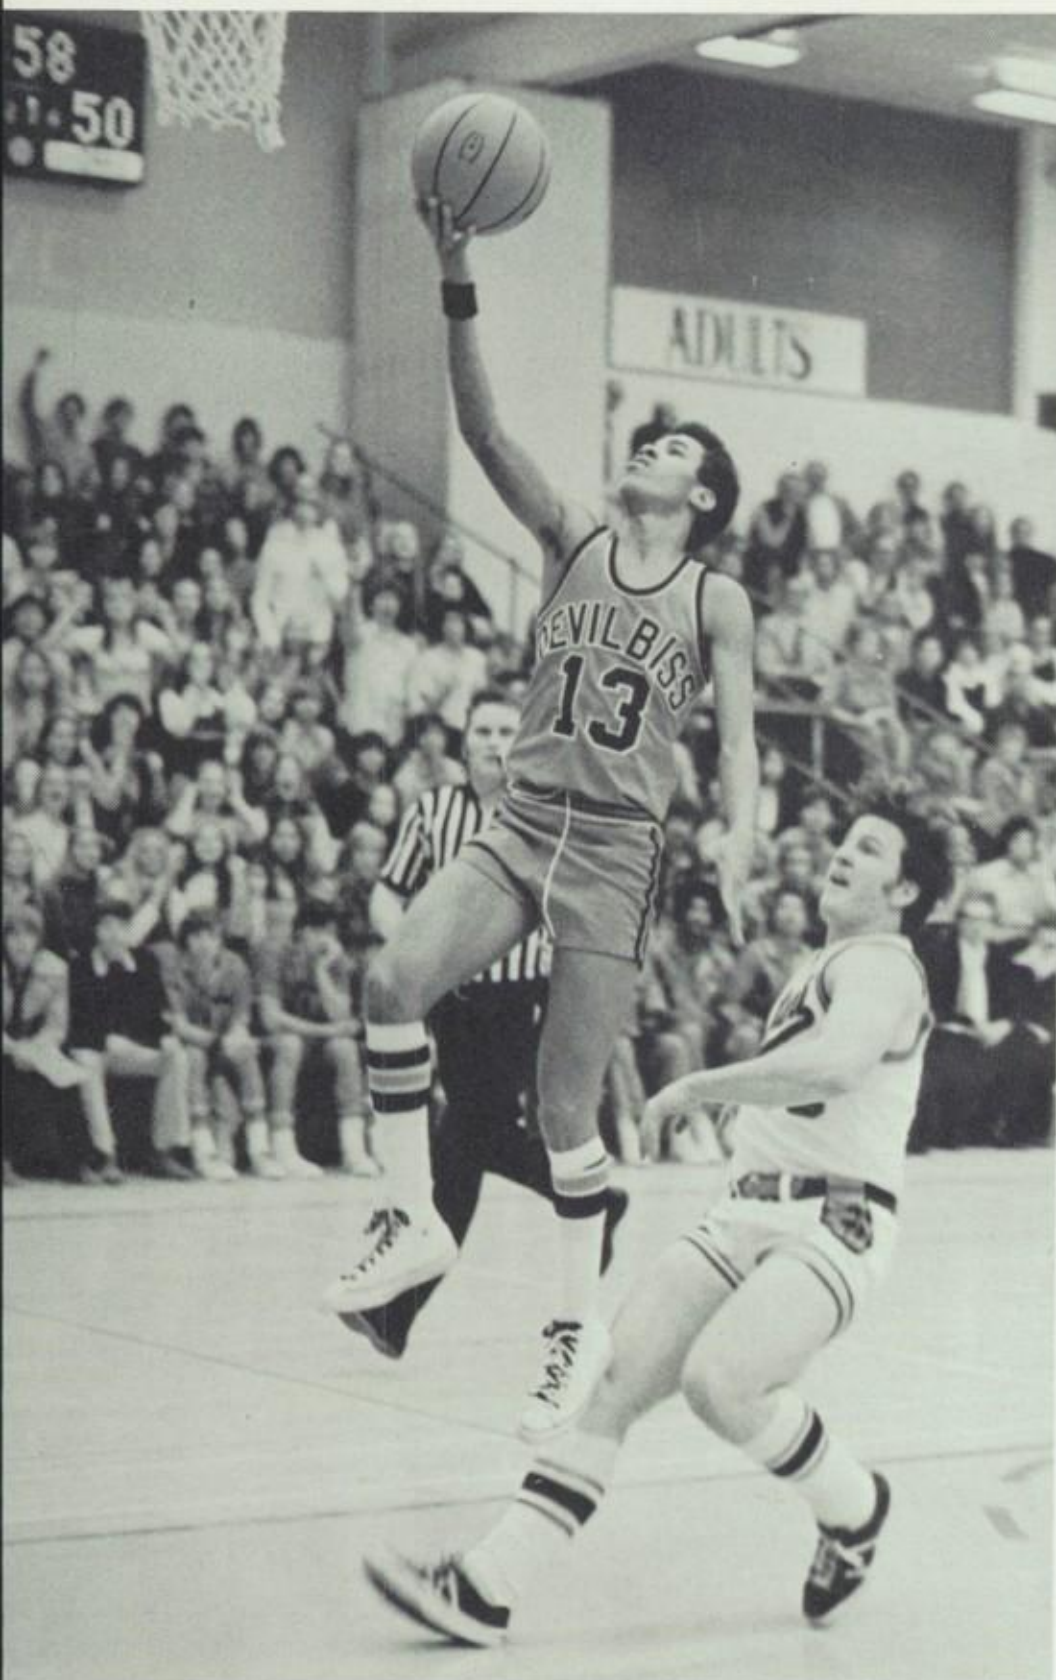

A cross-court pass from Farley Bell sends the Tigers in for 2 points.

No defense can stop John Morton's long jumper.

George Young strains to rebound as Tiger teammates assist.

Driving ahead of his man, Mike Murphy leaps high to drop in the ball.

Overtime Games Bring Losses

Practicing 1½ hours before school, the Freshman team showed potential. It was unable, however, to capitalize on the multiple defense used. Several games were close and the DHS/Sylvania game played into overtime, but the final record failed to show this effort.

Though the team had no star players, members voted Rod Buchanan Most Valuable Player.

Fulfilling their goal of 10 wins set early in the season, the Reserve team finished with their best record in 6 years.

Change from set plays to the use of shuffle offenses proved strong though 3 of their losses came in overtime.

Harriers Overcome Several Set Backs

"No one deserves to win, they have to earn it." That was how Coach Bud Tapola explained the downfall of the Tiger Cross Country team. Though the Tigers lost only 1 league meet, they fell to 5th place in the City.

Runners succumbed to illness and injuries during the season so that there was not one time when all varsity runners were in top form. Mostly underclassmen, the Tigers came back in the Sectional race to place 4th.

Team members traveled to Cleveland, Ashland College, and for the first time ran in the Ohio University Distance Classic, placing in the top 10 squads of each race run at the meet.

Stuart Davis took individual honors at the Cleveland St. Joe's Invitational by placing first and later led the team to a runner-up position in the City Meet. This added to their 8-0 league record to give DHS freshmen the best season ever.

The Junior Varsity team fell to 4th place in the City because of illness and injury on the varsity squad, which caused top runners to be replaced with J.V. team members.

Dissatisfied with his finish, Mike Chase places 4th for the J.V. harriers.

Girls' Track

Few Show Interest In Newest Program

Lack of depth and a late start hindered the 1972 Girls' track team. Dominated by freshmen and sophomores, the team started conditioning in March, just a few weeks before their first meet. The short pre-season running program slowed the distance runners' times.

Relay teams placed 5th and 6th in the City Meet held at Start H.S. to complement Kim Grier's 5th place in the long jump.

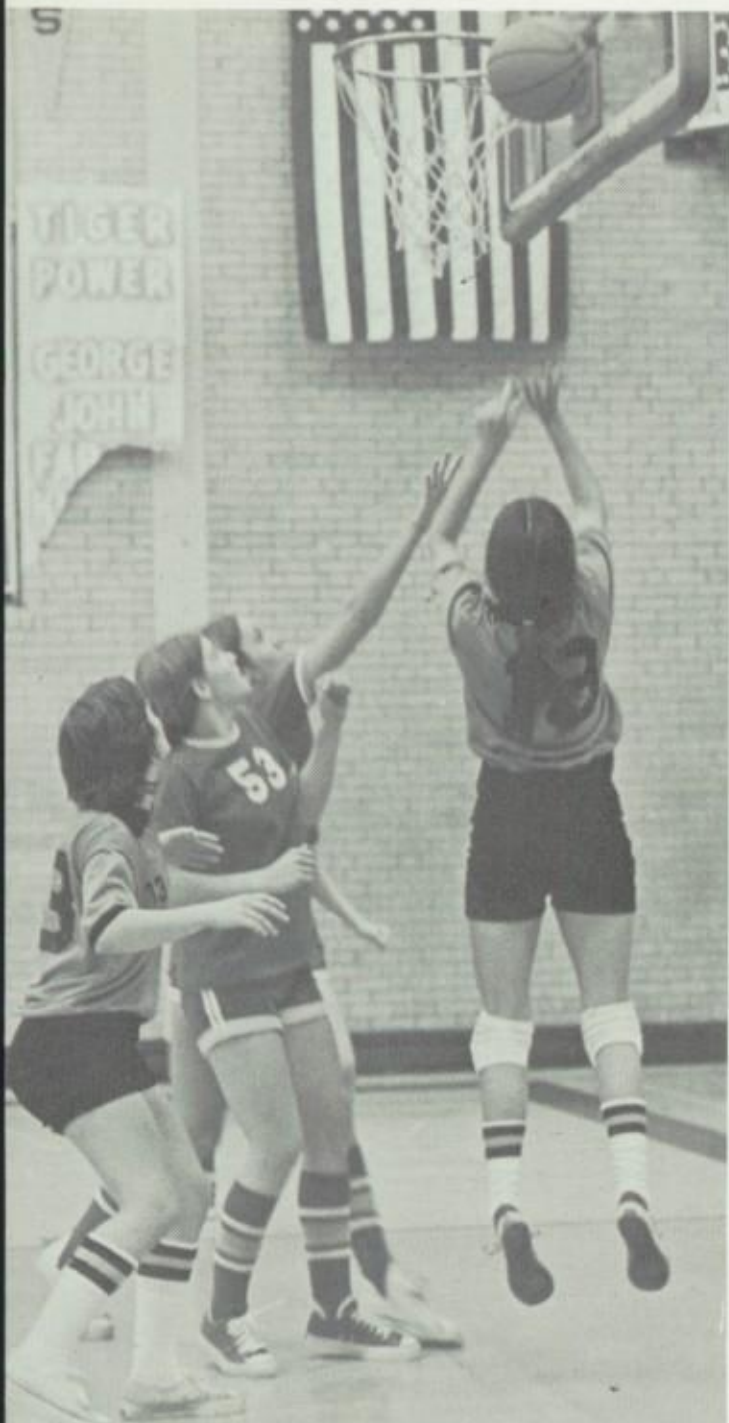

Though the trackers ended the season with a 1-3 record, Coach Judy Weghorst commented, "For the first year of organized track at DeVilbiss I thought we were very good."

Girls' Basketball

Scores Improve During Season

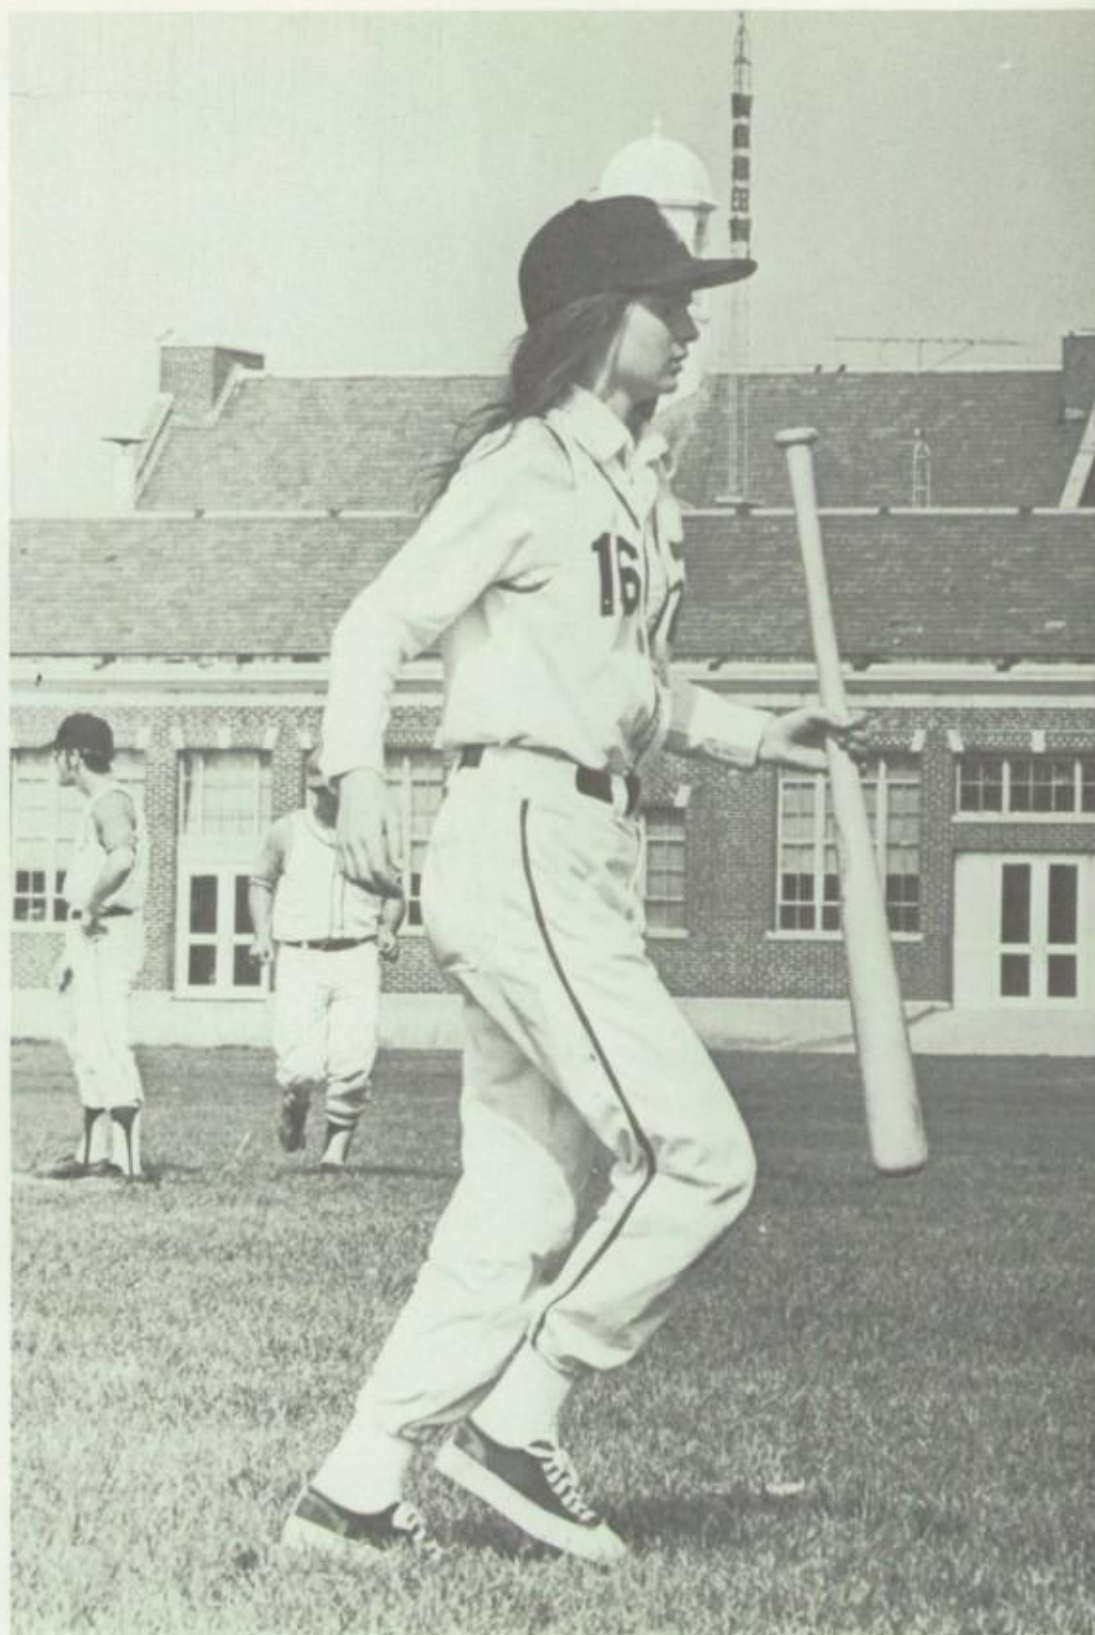

Except Mary Whitman and Kim Otto, all girls on the team were freshmen and sophomores. Though they were 0-6 at mid-season, they narrowly missed victory in games against Waite and Woodward.

Since this was only their 3rd year, and since basketball was discontinued in the girls' gym program 2 years ago, their only playing experience came from junior high classes.

Nancy Collins and Bernadine Buchanan led the Tigers' scoring drive while Barb Miller and Val Shinnors worked to keep the defense alive. Coached by Sue Earl, most members plan to be back in the program next year, using the 72-73 season as an important learning experience.

"Pleasing 1972 Season" was the way Coach M. Paluszak described the teams' efforts. They racked up ten victories with only three defeats. The Blade photographer titled the team "Dark Horse Candidates" for the sectional meet. Two golfers achieved All-City honors: senior Stan Teague and sophomore Jim Manera. Consistency played a key role in matches throughout the season for sophomores Tom Meyers and Brian Abel. During winter months, juniors Dennis Miller and Dan Rathke practiced constantly to perfect their game. Medalist honors were shared by Tom Steele, Stan Teague, Mark Kolhe and Jim Manera. As the season ended, the team awarded Stan Teague with a most valuable player trophy and Jim Manera with a trophy for most improved player. Two seniors graduated.

Team Struggles To Beat Record

In the spring of '72, under the coaching of Mr. T. Wyatt, the Tiger netmen played many close matches, often within one point. Despite the determined opposition of 11 teams, the Tigers managed to climb to a strong 4th place in the city meet at Jermain Park.

Sophomore Neil Rubin led the team in netting 7 victories against 4 defeats. Netmen Jay Fieldstein and Fred Maurer paced the team in doubles competition. With no graduating players, the outlook for the 1973 Varsity season is quite exceptional.

Teams Place High In Area Tournaments

Various activities in the intramural program allowed DeVilbiss students to compete among themselves and often in City Tournaments. Tennis, volleyball, badminton, archery, bowling, softball, and golf offered girls an alternative to Varsity Basketball and Track. Boys competed in football and basketball.

Mary Ellen Ethington led the archery team to 2nd place in the City by scoring the highest points over all other competitors. Other squads placing first in tournaments were upperclass volleyball and bowling. In all tournaments DeVilbiss captured 1st or 2nd place.

Surprise Package Proves Rewarding

Mike Gold, Bernie Sharfman, Doug Jennings, and John Bracey played a 13-0 season to win the Blade trophy and City Championship.

While preparing to meet Paul Opdycke of Rogers, the league's highest rated player, Mike Gold searched vainly for several weeks for a way to meet the Smith-Mora gambit that Opdycke played. On the morning of the quarter final match of the City Championship against Opdycke, Gold found copies of the gambit originator's games on his doorstep. After studying these games, he surprised his opponent and ended their match in a draw.

Team members met after school several nights a week, playing chess and studying Grandmaster games to improve their techniques.

The Junior Varsity playing 4th through 8th boards, finished 2nd in the City Tournament.

Mike Gold concentrates during his match against P. Opdycke as Doug Jennings watches.

Saturday mornings through winter and spring kept many boys active in the City bowling leagues. Teams, determined by the bowlers' averages, entered the 2 divisions. Fun Times Lighten Duties Of Maturity Class officers presented new ideas to Seniors at the first meeting. Among these were a class picnic, a hop after the Scott football game, the folk festival, and a hayride at Lonsway Farm.

Although these provided a variety of interests, not many took advantage of them.

President Dave Britsch said "There are always the dedicated class members, but people find outside interests more important."

Seniors Struggle to Make Up Their Minds

CANCELLED

At an assembly held early in the year suggestions for the senior break were many: camping trip—East, West, Canada, Disney World, the Bahamas, Montreal. Any place except New York. Accordingly Dave Britsch, class president, made arrangements with the Galloway Travel Agency for a trip to Montreal. After several delays to allow more time for making down payments, there were still only eight reservations. The president called an assembly to show a film of Montreal and discuss the situation. After the whole bit, seniors decided that New York was the place they really wanted to go.

Juniors Hold Late Election

Homecoming activities delayed election of officers until November. Rick Adamson, representative-at-large, took charge of the float construction. To pay off the debt on last year's homecoming float the class held many sales of baked goods, suckers, and programs at basketball games. Tuesday, December 19 was a day that will be remembered by eighty-five juniors. At eight-thirty in the morning, they assembled at DeVilbiss and boarded two Tarta busses headed for Greenfield Village. There, the English III-A.M. classes spent the day. Mr. H. Feltner, Mrs. R. Gladieux, Mr. D. McClellan, Mr. S. Stein, and nine parents accompanied the group. Because of Lyndon B. Johnson's death, the Junior-Senior Ski Trip was postponed from January 28 to February 19.

Class Has Problems Raising Greenbacks

Building a homecoming float was the main activity of the sophomore class. Officers organized a bakesale but student interest was low and they only earned nine dollars. As a result, the treasury is almost empty.

Students showed strong support at games and assemblies. Shouts of, "Sophomore Power", filled the gym. Many students wore the school colors and orange derbies the day of the city championship game.

D.H.S. Welcomes 381

August 31, 1972 the Freshmen and their parents met in the auditorium for orientation. Mr. K. Morris introduced the new staff and explained the procedures. Tours led by upperclassmen around the school concluded the program. During the first months of school Freshmen participated in Homecoming festivities, Spirit Week, Man of La Mancha, and the Foreign Language Festival. In December, at an assembly, club presidents explained the purposes and goals of the clubs which Freshmen could sign up for on Club Day.

Carolyn Chase, Freshman-Representative-at-Large, elected out of three candidates in February stated, "With the Spirit of '76, I hope the individuals of our class will unite to obtain a meaningful goal."

Sports Play Major Role

"Team Olympics" was one of the main activities. Every month there was competition in different sports. Every Friday night in January there were basketball games. In February there was volleyball and in March they had swimming. There were meetings held on the first and third Thursday of every month. Roller skating at Fun Spot was one of their various activities. In April at the Miami Children's Home they had an Easter Egg Hunt.

Girls Ride Monthly

Howard Stables, on Secor Road, became the new riding location where girls rode horses once a month. Members displayed enthusiasm by making spirit signs for both the Start and Scott basketball games. Girls celebrated the Christmas season by having a party and exchanging gifts. After working hard to make Valentine's Day candy favors, they distributed them to the faculty members.

COME ON ENTER IN OUR EDUCATION DEVELOP EXPERIENCE

During "Vocational Week" Mr. John Galyas shows the girls how to advertise their club and attract new members for next year's COE class.

Vocational Class Becomes A Club

The first project conducted by COE as a new club was certainly a success. A first place float for the Homecoming Parade was made by the girls with help from Mr. John Galyas. At the beginning of the year three girls went to a convention in Lima, Ohio to learn good leadership habits for a social club. The main fund raising project was selling various Christmas gift items. The profits from this project will be used for the second annual Employee-Employer Banquet. All of these girls hold after school jobs in stenographic, clerical, and bookkeeping areas. These will provide vocational experience.

Yard Sale Brings Treasury Increase

At a yard sale in Karen Michaels' front yard, many people cast second glances at two huge beds the girls had for sale. The girls took advantage of the sunshine in September by having an auto bath at a gas station. The faces of the children living at St. Anthony's Villa expressed happiness and gratitude for the puzzles donated by the girls. The members distributed Turkey Day favors to the faculty the Wednesday before vacation. A dinner at Farrell's celebrated formal inductions.

DECA

DECA Heralds Best Year In History

"Pens and Things" became the new name of the stationer's desk after DECA members reorganized it. Many of the members took honors and held city and state offices. John Krieg earned the office of Vice-President of Toledo Area DECA. Cheryl Waller placed third in Northwestern Ohio District for Miss Ohio DECA. Ken Dreeze placed third in Business Math and Sue Wisniewski also captured third place in District Competition in Business Vocabulary. Penny Boone took first place at State Leadership Conference in Free Enterprise Contest. She won a week's vacation in Atlantic City, New Jersey for herself and adviser, Mr. Russell Brock.

Boy's Clubs Dwindle To Only One

Being the only boy's club in the school, Hi-Y received many new members on club day. For homecoming, they built a float with I-Da-Ka, their sister club, which took fourth place. Several times before school, the young men sold doughnuts to the students and members of the faculty. Combining fun and rivalry, many of the members got together to form an intramural basketball team. Their third annual film festival, entitled, "Flicord Festival" attracted many kids to the West Toledo Y.M.C.A. Having a splash party with Peries turned out to be a whale of a good time during spring vacation.

Girls got more paint on themselves than on the stadium bleachers, as they painted "DeVilbiss" across them in late summer. After painting "plastics" on the trash cans in the cafeteria, club members once again had to bathe in turpentine. The trophy cases in the main hall shone after the girls' efforts to clean them. With horn honking and much laughter, Hi-Y, I-Da-Ka's brother club, surprised the girls by showing up at several meetings. The club's treasury received a large boost in February, by the sale of valentine carnations. Weo! How they sold!

Girls Make Best Of Late Start

Starting late, the girls found it hard to plan many activities. They did take a Christmas basket to an inner city family. After a meeting in February, the kids took Barb Breno to Farrell's for her birthday. As a club project, the girls attended the choir concert at the Peristyle in the Toledo Museum of Art.

Enthusiastic Participation Characterizes Activities

An egg sale and picnic at Ottawa Park kicked off the year for the German Club. Money from this October project went toward the Language Festival, which in room 323 featured German-style food and costumes, the DeVilbiss Oomph Band and exciting, colorful decorations. After successfully designing the first-place Christmas window, members ate at the Wittenberg Restaurant, combining victory and a Christmas party. In March, the club attended a "Faschingball", a German Mardi Gras and enjoyed an Austrian meal. One reason for the success of the club this year, is Mrs. M. Walters, the new adviser. Another is a new rule which allowed freshmen and sophomores to become members.

Twelve Plays Highlight Year

Thespians were a smashing hit at the pep assembly for the Central football game when Dave Britsch was introduced as a Central football player in a coffin. All the members were in the musical "Man of La Mancha". Members also performed four sketches at a seminar for English and Drama teachers across Ohio at the University of Toledo. At the faculty Christmas party members dressed up as Santa and his toys and entertained the children.

Members Show Love To Adopted Child

Members corresponded with their adopted child from El Salvador, Honduras all year long. They wrote letters and sent gifts to her at Christmas and on her birthday. She was very touched by all the love her new friends showed. A decorated car filled with happy and excited girls pulled their homecoming float. Bakesales and a neighborhood pop bottle collection helped bring in money that the members put to good use in their various club projects and activities. In November many of the members gave up school time to pass out "Vote for school" literature. A Christmas party with big and little gift exchange ended the Christmas holiday season. On OA day, members planned a trip to the Toledo Zoo. Outdoor setting made Senior Banquet unusual.

Sharon Parker and Sharon Langender put the finishing touches on their club float as Cathy Swindle looks on with pleasure before the homecoming parade.

Pay-a-el-sa

Club Emphasizes Fun Activities

Selling old items at a summer Flea Market netted one hundred dollars to boost the treasury. A big and little sis bike hike with a lunch followed the sale. Kool-Aid at cross country meets and signs for athletic events showed school spirit. December was a very active month with Santa's mailbox for students to send cards and letters to friends, and a Christmas window. With two other clubs they put on a Christmas dance at the Franklin Park Mall. Valentine treat bags filled with cookies and candy went over big, as did the Valentine mailbox.

Heidi Vandivort and Laurie Thompson smile at students as they sell cookies, cakes, and brownies at another bakesale in the front hall to raise more money.

Peries Hosts City Wide Tea

Members started the year early in August by applying fresh paint to the hall waste baskets and to the curbs in the south parking lot. Some money making projects were bakesales, selling Thanksgiving carnations and selling fire extinguishers.

Jann Veller planned interesting programs for the semi-weekly meetings. The Christmas party at Sue and Nancy Juergens house along with the singing of Christmas carols helped show the holiday spirit. They held a roller skating party for the school after a basketball game and held a swim party at the West Toledo YMCA with Hi-Y.

A few of their projects were hosting the Peries city wide tea, a Christmas basket for a needy family and a turkey basket for flood victims.

Despite the cold weather many members showed up to entertain the Old Orchard area with the singing of Christmas Carols during the holiday season.

Tri-D

Hand Made Tags Show TADS Spirit

To help promote spirit at all athletic contests Tri-D passed out spirit tags early in September at the Rogers football game. In preparation for the school musical members polished one of the school's pianos. When the leaves became a foot deep on the school's lawn, many members decided that it was time to rake them. Members passed out literature for the school levy. Tri-D was one of the few clubs to pass out candy favors to teachers.

Chorale Becomes Chartered Club

The Chorale participated at one of the assemblies during "Black American History Week". Members sang and acted out "A Storefront Church", a play on mid-nineteenth century Black American religion. Dramatics teacher Martha Pownall wrote and directed the skit.

The group held a practice session every Thursday night at the Redeemer Lutheran Church. This was the first year that the Gospel Chorale formed a chartered club at DeVilbiss.

STAMP OUT BORING SHOES!

A lot of guys wouldn't be caught dead in shoes like these.

But it's you other guys – the ones who aren't afraid to let people know where you stand – you're the ones we had in mind when we made this fancy footwork.

So go ahead, get your kicks – from Dexter.

Wheaties—Breakfast of Champions!

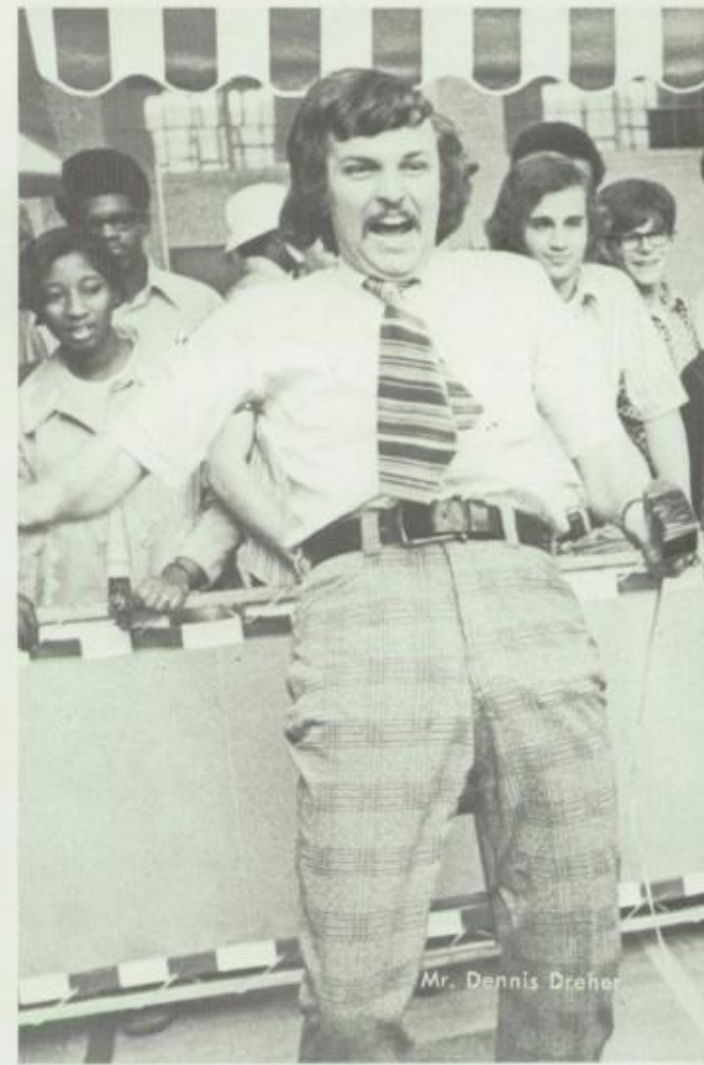

Bob Tuckerman, Ken Stern, and Dave Simrell

Dave Britsch and Dale Radunz

Varsity Drag

Mr. Dennis Dreher

We were clinging to the past with old traditions and ideas left by former graduates. The times were changing and we realized that these old traditions weren't good for us anymore. With the help of seventeen new administrators and teachers we experimented with breaking through the past, trying new ways and establishing new traditions. Now we had a chance to try our ideas which brought change within our halls. We didn't know what the future would hold, but the past held only memories. It became a challenge to make our dreams become reality without failing in the process. Sometimes we did fail, but we never gave up hope. We were determined to succeed and change the traditions. We worked and worked and finally we realized we had Broken Through!

Club Carnival

Bob we you something else,
 Prom
 We've had a lot of good times from Freshman English
 to Mrs. Lydia Bell
 Remember me to Brass picked up. I'll the guy that Cupcake never live with else. Those a riot with all the help and thanks for have I never would see without you. U.
 and at O.S. U.
 Love,
 Karen B.
 (alias "Zis")

The Duetto
 you have the Duetto
 keep in the Duetto
 (writing this with you)
 quite an experience
 because you had
 because you had your old (you)
 thank "Baby Doll" (you) always remember
 see you later honey

SPIDER, SPIDER, ON THE WALL,
COME ON DOWN BEFORE YOU FALL,
DON'T YOU KNOW THAT WALL'S
BEEN PLASTARD, COME ON DOWN

YOU DIRTY B-S-ARD!!!

I LEAVE YOU WITH A POEM BUT NOT FOR GOOD! HOPE TO SEE YOU A LOT
THIS SUMMER MARK BOWLING

Bobby,
We've had a riot ever since last summer. Driving down queens lane, downtown, and by my house with the garage door open making the door go up and down. My Murena shut glasses
We'll never forget all those nights in my basement and my living parties, all the dances and parties at Heather's with all our crazy dancing. New Years Eve at Martha's party. "We Broke The Bed", the night Libby knocked over the artificial flowers after a few. Lunch with cup-cake, stringbeans and lopside, our dear soul sisters. Dinner at Top of the Tower, I really appreciate you talking to me and always trying to make me see the light about Rick and Bruce, I'm really sorry I got so mad at you, but you just really "over did it!" Sarah + Andy, Dude +
Libby will always remain in our hearts.
The geeks + the dunks, all the nights in Heather's car. The Sarahmobile hotting all the time. Next year at Ohio State we'll have to go to one of the dances since you've never asked me to dance. We'll never forget all the assemblies and all our yelling, Zingy Zingy and the soul. Of course I will never forget you coming over while I babysat and the night we played old maid. Talking about Rocko and his zits, Popping zits all over in school and smoking each other into lockers. The night my car got stuck on Flanders' road. You had you missed the turkey dinner at Bury's but I remember well you coming over later on with your suit case all packed after a fight with Sarah. Good luck always, you deserve it. King of the prom, and the funniest senior boy. Well, guess, we'll have a lot more good times this summer and next year. Love,
Dait Face

{PS. ALSO I have a story that will shock you all you being pregnant every weekend.
